What User likes about Erickberto's: excellent Mexican cuisine, the real thing, not taco bell fast food, all taste the same. a previous review complained about the quantity of meat in their dressing. I don't agree. I had tacos carne asada for $4.99; the amount of bark was comparable to that of a big mac or more. also it was not a primer of doubtful origin. the price of a big soda was exaggerated: $2.70! it's a bottomless cup, but still. I will bring my... read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Erickberto's: they can't take the wobbles out of their burros. they say the tweepers and paprika are already mixed and cannot be removed. when I took out the wobbles myself, I was left with absolutely no meat. I asked for a crushed beef beef beef beef beef. that's it. I just wanted shredded bark. instead, I have a plate of tweepers. I was unhappy when I first had dinner here, now I know. 3 stars are friendly. read more.
