like about Cunard's Sandbar:

It's a very nice place and if I was 20 years older I would probably swoon. The food was fine but very traditional in that the salad was iceberg, the veggies were bias cut medley by which the freezer isle is inspired and pasta was abundant. I had the shrimp scampi. Sauce was no where to be found but the shrimp were big and juicy. My SO's veal piccata was pretty good, but again lacking in any creativity or modern flair. read more.
