I booked a mid-week one-night stay in mid/late June. While booking, it never occurred to me that I'd need to give two weeks notice if I my plans changed. When they did, I lost 100 percent of the cost of the stay. There are probably good reasons the owners have the policy. I'm not arguing against it. I just bring it to the attention of other travelers whose plans are apt to change on relatively short notice and who mi... read more.
