try to order them directly when they pick up, I always do because door dash and similar take too much money from the restaurants, it is hard for the restaurants to make a profit and we do not want us to go out of the business. I really liked eating the whole, and I really liked the bread (fermented pancakes / injera.) nice, weizen not to eat in a restaurant. the veggie combo dish was good to try with various aromes o... Note: This is a review solely based on the poor customer service. As a transplant raised on eating this cuisine and ordering it from places across the world, the service at this establishment was the worst I've experienced.

There are no excuses to speak and treat customers in a snub and unprofessional manner period. Having tolerated it on several occasions, I will no longer nor will I patronize this establishment.
