The knishes are really tasty, and it's really a neat spot to go to. I mean, it's been there since 1910! There is some seating so you can get your knishes to eat there or get them to go. They ask for a minimum for credit card purchases, I think it was $10. So keep that in mind because the knishes are quite cheap if you only get one or two. read more. What User doesn't like about Yonah Schimmel's Knish Bakery: yonah schimmel's is a tiny hole in the wall where they sell knishes and similar objects for the takeout. this place is world famous, a NYC landmark that they would not guess from the humble view of the load. this is all vegetarian, but most of the articles seem not-vegan. However, they have a series of vegan kartoffeln knishes, so if they want a taste of history, this is a good place to visit. read more.
