The service was good and quick, I enjoyed this plate which the name escapes memory right now. I wasn't a fan of their chicken spring rolls, they were loosely packed and not much for flavour or substance. They had good soup and rice though. read more. We have always enjoyed the food at this place and were regulars but service and food have come far down from what they used to be during recent visits. The pho tastes different and the Thai boba tea was watered down with a skimpy amount of whipped topping that looked flat. Communication is a real issue with some of the staff who don't tune into to the needs of their customers. The ambiance is as gone as the old owner...
