If your a local, you know this place has superb food. The downside is the waitress's are unfortunately very slow at the service. The last two times we've been here we have had to get up for our own drinks and find menus. Waited so long for the food that when it arrived the calzones weren't even done on the inside with the cheese not even being melted. We unfortunately won't be back due to the lack of customer service... read more.
