the ice is real, probably too real. an intense, irrational reality of a dream. so real that they ask their own existence. we can't do that best in his game of psychological warfare. vanilla orange swirl. where science and religion become one? read more. What User doesn't like about Bruster's Real Ice Cream:

I ordered a turtle ice cream cup to go. I put it in the freezer when I got home. I opened it the next day and it was just a cup of chocolate ice cream. I do not eat chocolate ice cream. Turtles are usually made with vanilla ice cream. There was no chocolate or caramel syrup nor pecans in this turtle. read more.
