Pleasant experience here. There were quite a few cars in front of me at dinner time and they got through the orders quickly including mine, wasn't rushed but good service. There is a huge difference between the two that most people don't think about. Guy at the window was very friendly and efficient. Young but definitely appeared to care for his job and was polite. It was a such a good impression that I hope he moves... read more. What User doesn't like about Popeyes Louisiana Kitchen:

Drunk staff managers who cuddle with workers and don't scream a real business of them want to eat hot not here, it takes 45 minutes for a sandwich very badly guided restaurant read more.
