our waiter was nod. he was very efficient and brought the food to the times we demanded. However, when it came to get the bill at the end of the evening, it took an extraordinary time to get the bill. the music was very pretty, but the noise level was really too high to have a dinner talk without screaming. this was our fourth visit in their wonderful restaurant and we will be back. The service was slow, which could be due to staff shortages. I ordered the fettuccine Alfredo and it was overly rich. They charge a whopping $8 for chicken. My husband ordered the clam linguini and felt it was okay but not worth the cost. The restaurant is outdated and needs some updating. There was live music that sounded more like Karaoke. They sat us right behind the speaker so we couldn't even talk to each other... read more.
