I was in the northbrook area and wanted sushi and saw they had this place tucked away in a plaza. Parking in the lot of course. The place inside is pretty small, but it wasn't busy on a Thursday night. Was seated right away. I got a bento box with chicken. It was honestly so good but I couldn't finish and had to take it to go. I think there was only 1-2 staff working so I know they were working hard filling up orders... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about

Fujiyama Japanese:

I hate to say, but I won't go back. the menu was greasy and dirty. I didn't want to touch it. it felt like a few fat fingers were in it by other people. the plates they used to sushi were also greasy at the bottom and slippery. it seemed that they simply didn't have the time to clean themselves properly. I also felt there was no value. they have calculated $5 for a five-piece castor. I ordered a $14 roll that had cra... read more. In the Fujiyama Japanese from Northbrook, using a lot of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, healthy, fine Japanese dishes are prepared, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes. Also, they offer you delicious seafood dishes, The creative fusion of different menus with fresh and partially daring products is highly valued by the guests - a nice example of Asian Fusion.
