this is a really great local business. the owners remember their names and the yogurt is always good. I love the espresso aromatized when it is available with andes minze and strawberries. my children love to come here after school graduation. we like to swing by after I picked them up and then cooled to home with the fro-yo. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WLAN. What User doesn't like about Urban Yogurt: much too expensive for what they get. there are so many better places to go, that are better quality and cheaper. I won't waste my money here. many meth people hang around. my 3 yr old licked his ice and the girl lashed him in the ground, because it had to be weighed as if it made a difference in the price. never again.
