Love love love this place great taste I been going here for 5 years and they r open all day amazing tamales always fresh and hot every staff is very respectful and hardworking people who deserves credit for everything they do for this little spot I drive 30 mins maybe twice a week to go here bc. Always taste like your momma made it for u fresh hot and ready always felt like it was made with love I highly recommend th... read more. What User doesn't like about Los Toritos:

Consistently very good food. Consistently very poor customer service: front counter staff needs training in food service etiquette, often get the orders incorrect, long waits to get food and often not what we ordered, short staffed and seem unwilling to hire more competent people. The quality of the food is the ONLY reason we come back. read more.
