What User likes about Burger King: Go on for another location there is always a problem at this. Today I was asked to pay this in the second window. Reverse to first one to get my food. Then said on the first window forward to the second window to get it. They are very rude at this point every time I have been there. You are right about my work and have never said thank you or please. Only completely missing in areas other locations excelled. Revised,... read more.
