I am very impressed by the manager at this place. I think he said his name was rudolph (I'm so sorry if I heard that wrong) I was unhappy because of an issue with our order, and I think the manager has handled the situation very well. even if my order was wrong, this was the first time that I had a problem after many years to come to this place. that is certainly more than I can say for other burger joints in the opp... What User doesn't like about Five Guys:

on this place frequently. but now not the best experience. very late with service and the pommes seem to be much too expensive. used to get more than what we want earlier, but now for 7.50 for a big pommes they only get what was little earlier. inflation? but still 7.50 for fritten? better buy them from a sit-down restaurant that gives riders free with burgers and the total amount will be equal.
