Gosh, I just love this place so much! The food and beer are absolutely delicious and authentically German. Coming from the Midwest, it's hard to find a good German establishment in the Bay Area, but this one is the best I've experienced so far! The service is a bit sub-par, which is why I'm giving it 4/5 stars, but I'm sure they'll improve as life returns to normal. The food and drink here make my soul so happy! read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat outside. What beebler doesn't like about Suppenkuche:

This hip, corner restaurant is a good place for a group who wants some hearty German food. A bare and loud environment don't make it ideal for a date, but along with the beer, is great for a fun time with friends. read more.

Typical European courses, that's what the Suppenkuche from San Francisco offers, The meals are usually prepared for you in the shortest time and fresh. In addition, they serve you fine seafood menus, But above all, there are robust German meals with matching sides like potatoes as well as salads.
