the whataburger on 6th avenue is by far the best location in tucson eating and drinks are always on point the restaurant is always clean and the staff is always friendly there is a young girl who works there I believe her name is darla she is so sweet and friendly always helpful always has a smile on her face food: 5/5 read more.

The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Whataburger:

I like to eat this, but more and more whataburgers will give my business. they have workers standing outside, without giving orders in the summer. how difficult it would be to buy a umbrella and a basic of costco. any place that does this does not deserve support without supporting their employees.
