Found a regular place to go for burgers in Lompoc. Staff was super friendly, and relatively quick for a take out order. The dining room looked clean and well taken care of. Staff appeared very customer focused. Burger was served wrapped well in paper to keep everything together. Burger was tasty and cooked through. I admit some of the alphabetical burgers sound strange, but I appreciate the clever options. Onion ring... read more. What User doesn't like about Tom's:

Food was disgusting. Burger meat, patty, onions tasted old and expensive. Two burgers and chicken strips was almost $40 with no drinks. Eddys grill is much better, price is around the same too. Better buns (broishe), fresher products, I have an extra star due to the server their and customer service is nice. read more.
