Well, I can say that the portions are quite large! We went there for Dine LA week and I really wanted to love this place, but overall the food was just okay. I had the Wild Mushroom Crostone for an appetizer and that was the best dish I had. Very big portion as well. I also had the baked clams which tasted overwhelmingly of red pepper and bread crumbs. Not a fan. For my entree I had the Linguine Vongole which is typi... read more.
