What User likes about Roadside Grill: This restaurant offers excellent cocktails, delicious food and a modest menu with a variety of choices. Yes, there are some fish dishes, but if you want something else, you can find it here. The building offers a diving bar. It is somewhat rough around the edges and crumbles. But wait staff work together as a team and are very friendly and hospitable. Prices are what you expect in a resort area. There are both indoor... read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Roadside Grill: Shouldn't have trusted the reviews. Not children friendly. We were sat and told, we don't do high chairs and we don't have a kids menu Their only option was buttered pasta with parmesan. The drinks were terrible. We waited over 40 minutes for 2 halibut specials and 2 pastas. We finally asked for the food to be boxed up because the kids had enough. The pan seared halibut was burned and dry. The rice had no spice/sa... read more.
