What User likes about Peppers Grill: Their service is excellent we were seated right away. Our orders were prompt, the chili is superb if you haven't had it yet that should always be one of the items that the group orders at least for a taste. The calamari as an appetizer can easily be shared up to four people. Our martinis from the bar repaired just the way we like them. The ambience is really great in the evening. It's one of the favorite places I lik... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Peppers Grill:

I was disappointed that they changed their rack of lamb to only be 1 single bone and one double bone instead of the traditional 2 double bone cuts that I loved so much for my birthday the year before and specifically why I came back this year. They also overcooked the lamb and my wife's pork chop, which was frustrating. Service was fine. read more. Get excited about the diverse, delicious Mexican cuisine, which is traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), Furthermore, the drinks menu in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive variety of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. Surely, it's also a nice event to feel like in the Wild West once, to drink and eat like the cowboys or even the bandits with a beverage or two paired with onion rings and a nice spicy burger, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
