This place was a bit surprised because we didn't even want to go there! But, boy, I'm glad we made it! It was delicious. We'll take the family back in the future. Good atmosphere, great service and delicious food. What else could you ask? The burgers were good. We also have the double fried wings where they saw some and then roast them. They were really good, but they need a second round sauce after the second frit.... read more. What

User doesn't like about Jefferson's:

Usually love coming here but the last couple times our order has been messed up which is fine it happens. This last time I went I got Jefferson baked oysters they came out without the parmesan and the jalapeños were not baked on like normal so I asked for permesan on the side and the server insisted they didn't come with pernesan (this is the only item I order from here and every time before it came with parmesan and...
