Great atmosphere an awesome lunch. Highly recommend visiting when in the outer banks but keep in mind they do close at 3pm. We lucked out and got there at 2:30. They have indoor and outdoor seating both very fun areas. I got the hot dog with kraut and spicy mustard. My kids enjoyed their kids meals on frisbees and both really liked the Mac and cheese. They had a way array of hot dog options and next time I go I will... read more. What User doesn't like about Capt'n Franks Hot Dogs Fine Sandwiches:

Food was hot and fresh, but just not that great. We felt it was overpriced for what it was. A homey feel and the outdoor seating on the side of the road could be part of a family tradition for some but just not for us. Service was pleasant and attentive. Ample parking but difficult to get out of onto the road going to the left. read more.
