SO close to a five star review!! The line is wrapped around the building and goes super quick thanks to all the elves running around the cars taking orders. The problem is... there's no MENU. I am here often enough that I love coming, but not often enough to have the menu memorized. I suggested they put a menu board BEFORE the area where they take your order. One worker said I'm the third person to suggest that just to... read more.
