Miguels Méxican Food At The Summit:

Standard Mexican fare with very little creativity. The quality was meh and the taste was plain. There are much better Mexican restaurants in the area. Customer service is good but they seat customers too close to each other. Tables and high-tops should still be 4-5 feet from each other. We were basically made to sit two feet away from people we didn't know and had to listen to their entire conversation. read more. Look forward to the diverse, tasty Mexican cuisine, traditionally prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), In addition, the cocktail menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a diverse assortment of beers from the region and the whole world. As a rule, most meals are prepared in a short time for you and served, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
