We came for the day of the father and it seemed to be a long waiting line that is understandable, as the restaurant seems hard to be understated. The hostess looked curious and said the waiting time was about an hour, but we thought it was worth it as it was our first time. Surprising, after 15 minutes we set ourselves. Maybe most people gave up too soon or decided to get. We all have the special menus and it was del... read more. You can use the WiFi of the place at no extra cost.
