Food is great and very authentic. I have never gotten sick from eating here. Service has improved compared to few years ago. They now have most items and are offering a more expanded menu. It's a truck so you have to take your food to go. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What Sharon Lloyd doesn't like about Df Nigerian Food Truck:

I just stopped by yesterday to get jollof rice and chicken. It was the worst food I've ever tasted. The rice tasted like they scraped the bottom of the pot and it was so burned tasting it was a shame that they would sell anyone that mess. The plantain was cooked burned black. I'm Jamaican and I know what a plantain is supposed to look like. My problem is I ordered a large meal and I had to throw all of that out! No on... read more.
