The price was at the top but I would say for the place it was expected. The food itself was good, but not great. My sister and I were happy with our selections, she had the lasagna and I had the pappardelle Bolognese. The only real farewell was the bruschetta appetizer. Only with 3 slices of bruschetta, and there were no honeycombs on the plate, as advertised. The olive oil on the Bruschetta and poured up was all ove... read more. Are you looking for pudding?
