The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Cafe Frank: This is not the place to go for a romantic evening. The cafe is small and crowded so there is no space between tables and no privacy. You are forced to hear everything the diners next to you are saying. The food was good but they ran out of several of the specials by 8 pm. The lamb had a bit too much garlic in my opinion. The wine is overpriced and service was quite slow. I would not return. read more.
