great meal in a beautiful environment. we sat first on a small table for 2 between 2 other tables. as we were early, there were many other empty tables, we asked for another table and where then placed in a covered terrace. there was something cold, but there were heating, so overall it was quite cozy! eating was great and the service was also great. will definitely go back! Coppelillo's Italiano:

Friendly staff and waitress and a beautiful room. The 4 tops were packed too closely together and It took quite a while to get our food and once finished, to get our check. The beat salad was amazing but our entrees were just average. I probably won't go back. read more.
