A good mexican restaurant. I ordered 3 tacos. They had tomatoes, which I forgot to ask for none, but those were easy to take off. The tacos were extremely delicious. My family went here and they all said it was good, except for my grandpa, which said It 's ok. The chips and dip were good too. I got the cheese dip, and it tasted good. I would recommend this place to anyone who is looking for mexican food. read more. What User doesn't like about Rio Méxican:

First time here and the building is a decent size but we ended up sitting outside just because. It wasn't by any means busy when we got there and it took our server forever to take our drink order then bring us our drinks, then come back for our food order, then we had to ask another server to get us refills and our serve brought them to us after we asked the other server and she never came back to give us our check...
