By now you know me, I don't go out a lot, but glad I decided to go to the Grill at Quail Creek with neighbors. They were going to listen to a band called Two Guys and these Two Guys certainly did not disappoint. And then there was John, our waiter. Talk about service, and what a personality he had. A happy man who loves his job and for him that job is to make you happy. He helped make suggestions for our meals, check... read more. What User

doesn't like about The Grill At Quail Creek:

So disappointed. I made reservations earlier this week for a special birthday dinner. Even though half the tables were empty we were seated in the main aisle next to the bar. A bar full of loud folks. I asked to change tables and was refused. Another couple came in and got a nice quiet table. The hostess said they reserved that particular table. Why didn't they tell me I wasn't reserving a decent table? We left. read more.
