A fucked local favorite, Station Cafe has a variety of breakfast standards. The food is consistently good, the service very friendly and coffee refills abundant. The only drawbacks are that the room is tight and there can be a waiting time because it is popular. The staff is very efficient without the customers feeling as if they were worn out. The different varieties of eggs Benedict are our favorites, but are only... read more. What Paul Luis doesn't like about Ardmore Station Cafe:

This is a tough one. Let's start with the wait. I got seated quick but then it was a long wait until someone came by. I noticed people waiting and waiting at their tables to be helped and to check out. The servers seemed lost, like they didn't know which tables they were responsible for. The food. I ordered streusel pancakes. The pancakes tasted great, but they hardly had anything on them. I felt ripped off as I coul... read more.
