The food was delicious and cheap. This place is more for taking out, but they had a few tables for dining. The service was amazing. The Lord who helped us was so kind, accentuating and friendly. This will definitely see my way when in the area. read more. What Michelle doesn't like about Great China:

Terrible food. When I called, I ordered shrimp subgum. They told me it was the same as chow mein. NOT! my husband ordered singapore mei fun which we were told was spicy. NOT! He literally had to add water and spices to his dish to even make it edible, along with the gravy from my dish. read more.
