The place was just ok. They don't keep up with the area around the food stations much. People were allowing their children to go up alone, which resulted in food being put back that they didn't want and heads under the protective glass. The night we went it was loud and you could hear the club next door through the walls. read more. What User doesn't like about Ryan's Grill Buffet Bakery:

We went on a Sunday for lunch and the food doesn't match the price for what they are charging now. It used to be our to go place when we were going that way. We won't be going back. read more. Ryan's Grill Buffet Bakery
