Although the line was long on the street corner, it went very fast through (30 minutes) , there are personal cleaning and organization tables, so it is not like people would fight for one. I'm not a big fan of thick noodles, but I enjoy it together with their light broth, it was so comfort. We get our own tempura and how many we want them. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. Lovers of Korean cuisine are right at home here: The range includes Kimchi, a variety of diverse interpretations of Bibimbap, alongside a multitude of delightful Jjigae that please the taste buds, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
