The location of this Dunkin is perfect for me. It seems to be a huge language barrier. They either don't understand you or you can't understand them. In summer it is not so much of a problem, but in winter with the window down while you try to understand your order and repeatedly loses a star. read more. What User doesn't like about Dunkin':

I used to go to this location almost daily. I always get a large iced Carmel latte with whipped cream. The drink comes with whipped cream. Lately they have been charging me extra for the whipped cream. Its not much but its the point I'm paying for something that is supposed to already be included. Done with this location.
