I really feel like the negative reviews are not guaranteed. It took a little time to sit, but the waitress was super nice. She had a lot to do, but still a quick friendly service. I was thrown away from the soup, not wrong, but I actually enjoyed it more. I'd probably just do that. I also liked that there were no extras in the salad. My only criticism is that the sush rice was a little on the sweet side for me. It is... read more. The restaurant offers free WLAN for its visitors. What User doesn't like about Hana Sushi Hibachi:
We were seated and the server had an attitude. We waited for an hour for our food because there was "too many people" when there was a booth filled. But the food was pretty good it was just not worth the wait. read more.
