To reach the restaurant, you need to go through the casino. Noise from the casino is a bit a problem, but the 1960s blues music playing in the background can overcome the sound of the casino. Great service. It was not very crowded and unfortunately some of the items listed on the menu were not available. The shrimps were very good. The dessert was good, but a little small. see photo There are many memories from the f... read more.
