At Route 211 Country Market, reviews reveal a mixed dining experience. While many patrons rave about the delicious food, including the Lobster Bisque and Gyro, others raise concerns about inconsistent service and questionable portion sizes. Complaints about delayed service, orders being mixed up, and unavailability of basic amenities detract from the culinary enjoyment. However, some customers have praised the friendly staff and have had positive experiences overall. With an appealing menu and competitive prices, this restaurant has the potential to become a local favorite, provided they address the service issues that some diners have encountered.
