today we had such a nice experience in rio coco cafe. what a beautiful coffee shop with an even more beautiful mission! the personal is super friendly! we'll come back every time we're in the opposite. they can (and should not) go to vero beach without visiting this shop! read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Rio Coco Cafe Roastery:

I love Rio Coco, but every time I get close to the airport, the food and/or drinks are bad. If the quality of your food and the accuracy of your order is important, I recommend you to Rio Coco in downtown Vero Beach. The food and drinks in the city centre are almost always perfect! At the airport location, menu items are often not available or incorrectly prepared. It also seems that the Avo Toast no longer has fresh... read more.
