very recommended! found by coincidence and met them twice in two days. all I had was the best I ever had — the best bartenders, the most beautiful local, the best moimosa, the best Belarusian, the best Irish mülleimer, the best buffalo chicken diving. if I ever move to asheville, it will be in distance from this place. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about The Social:

a dozen wings cost here $17, and they were the worst wings I've ever had. 8 of them were drumsticks, the sauce was hardly on them, and they were overboiled and undersized. you better go away if you want decent wings. I was shocked. read more. At The Social in Asheville, flavorful meat is freshly roasted on an open flame and garnished with tasty sides, There are also tasty South American meals in the menu. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you can indulge in tasty American meals like Burger or Barbecue.
