that is a very intimate place. it's small, but I think I like it most. this is great when they go to a beautiful little place and have some really good eating. I feel like many people go to such places and have the same expectations as do, but it's just not that. I think they're great. just one head up I would suggest holding their party to 4 or less. they offer space for 5 or more when booking. I am back and looking... read more. I'm currently giving one star because I wasn't able to taste the food. I anticipated trying the breakfast as the menu states breakfast all day. However upon arrival I was informed breakfast ended at 12:15pm. We were also informed that any items that included grits were unavailable as they were out of grits.. it was suggested that we substitute pasta for grits . The aromas did smelled good and the music was great. De... read more.
