The second time here are deserts really good and they have a great choice. A little at the top, but for the most part it is worth it. Customer service could be much better and definitely not what I expect from a mother and pop shop. The shop is small and well maintained. I will visit again, but if the customer service is still the same that will be my last time. I love to support small businesses, but poor customer s... read more. What Christine F doesn't like about Apple Annie's Bake Shop:

So disappointed with my last visit there. I was on the hunt for seeded rye bread . I did purchase one loaf and had it sliced for me. Brought it home and made a sandwich. The color was good , fewer caraway seeds than I like. The crust was soft , what a disappointment. I was hoping for a nice crusty loaf , but sadly it is not . They do make great black and white cookies and pretty good apple turnovers. read more.
