We went here because there is no room to sit and eat in the nearby SkyView Mall and we were pleasantly surprised. The restaurant was nice and clean, although the big menu seemed a bit expensive... we chose some of the cheaper dishes and the food was very good and was served quickly. They only accept cash, but they give you a lot of announcement... I'd definitely eat again here. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its customers. What FS doesn't like about Hot Kitchen Sichuan Style:

The taste of the dishes is salty, and the dishes on the table are not even fully cooked. It is NOT a decent restaurant and NOT worth going there for consumption. I don't care if your service is good or not, whether the hygienic conditions are up to standard, or the price of the dishes. For the catering industry, if the taste of the dishes is not good, that is the original sin. If such a restaurant appeared in China,... read more. The catering service is also provided by the restaurant for its customers, Many guests find it especially great that they can try the versatile, fine Chinese cuisine.
