I brought my baby out for Easter breakfast and the only place that seemed right was LaBelle Creperie on the shores of Port Angeles. The location is beautiful and each table has its own special rose! The LaBelle family offers an amazing experience that is very French and like a mini trip to gay Paris. Grandma LaBelle is a Master Crepeist and her great daughter has tried the delicious treats. I got the delicious chicke... read more. You can use the WiFi of the restaurant free of charge. What User doesn't like about La Belle Creperie:

Very disappointed, We waited 50 min for 2 crepes. We had to go and were refunded only for part of my order. The sum for 2 crepes and 2 coffees was over $42 .The coffee was dry, cold and you need to go to the counter to serve your self. There are no servers, you need to go to the counter to order your food. The 3 employees were very overwhelmed. The orders came out that no one ordered. I think the owner must be partic...
