This is a primitive little shop that is family owners and was a cornerstone for my family getting the middle eastern foods as long as I remember... more than 15 years. The shop is always clean, the staff is always friendly, the prices are very fair, the shop / parking is easy to reach, and if you are in the time of the weekends the Pita bread is hot and fresh baked by the sister bakery over the street. If you are mid... read more.
