The first visit to this diner, busy, but waiting to sit was not too long. Wait for the service. Once we were served, the food was good, dinner. I loved the minced meat. They serve it on cookies that were new to me, not sure if I'm a fan who used to be dead. Not a hash brown fan, but they were not bad. Eggs, begged slightly with cheese, but they were overcooked. My granddaughter had the pancakes with bacon and they we... read more. What User doesn't like about Crossroads:

The first time back since a new owner bought this restaurant. It's cool they keep the same name. I had fried shrimps. It would have cost better if it weren't soaked in oil. Besides, the woman had filled pepper. It was good. Salad was also very good. The waitress was very attentive and friendly. read more. If you're hungry some hot South American gastronomy, you're in the right place: exquisite meals, made with fish, sea creatures, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, here they serve a appetizing brunch for breakfast.
