My wife and I, fortunately, stopped here on the way to California. Not only was a great atmosphere inside, but it was also some of the best pizza we've ever eaten. The staff were very helpful and friendly, especially Chris, the manager. Chris was great! He insisted that we try out the tomases and I am very happy that we did this because they were the best tomases we ever had. In addition, her hot sauce is the best hot... read more. If you want to try tasty American courses like burgers or barbecue, Lost Pizza Company from Brandon is the place to be. Also, you shouldn't miss out on the crispy and crunchy pizza, original freshly baked in a wood oven. One also grills South American here with fresh seafood, meat, as well as corn and potatoes, and you can look forward to traditional Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
