I went home and felt like fish. That was the closest to me then. The first time here; the people were out at noon, and there was a line inside. I realized why it was so packed. The staff was so friendly and attentive. The place was clean and secret. And last but not least the food was great! My son enjoyed his fish and chips. It's hard to make him eat fish so that the fact that he finished his food was proof for me.... read more.
